PLEASANT GREEN A.C. CHURCH

We are pleased to announce to our beloved pastor, Rev. J. K. Parker, in his faithful and untiring efforts in leading a congregation from the lowest to the present, and have taught them as faithfully what God would have his people do. It has been a first in dry stubble and has made a way to the hearts of men and women to the extent that over 200 Sunday morning prayer meeting goes assemble themselves in the lecture room every Sabbath to hear God's praises, to see the first fruits of the day's worship. Let us praise God for the blessing. All eleven of the service was largely attended also throughout the day. At 8:30 p. m. Rev. L. R. Thomas of Little Africa preached a very enthusiastic sermon, text, St. Matthew 14 chapter, 4 verse, Thomas, "The end is at hand. The children are with us." The church and its auxiliaries will be in the lecture room at 8:30 p. m. on the 15th of June. Follow us to the lecture room. Leave your baskets at home. Food for all children with their parents, also your children. We are also pleased to announce that Annie B. Crawford, one of our young girls, was in the 19th grade class. Miss Crawford is a prospective young girl and faithful worker in the Junior work.—E. D. Buford, reporter.

St. James Church

The pastor selected for his text from Gen. 21 Chap. 17 Sunday morning, "And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven and said unto her: What aileth thee, Hagar? Fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is." Subject, "The strength of weakness." It tells the story of Hagar the unfortunate Egyptian maid who was so cruelly wronged and unfaithfully treated by Abraham and Sarah. The pastor placed the blame where it belonged. He pictured Hagar a slave, unprotected, a victim of Abraham's lust, sorely afflicted and persecuted by Sarah; he fought with her despair, Ishmael in her arms and at last in utter despair she placed her baby behind the sage bush in the desert and abandoned her body to the stars. But the hour had not come. God heard the voice of the lad and decreed that put from his home should come a great nation.

St. James Church

History is repeating itself today. An Abraham sought to feel rid of him by banishing Hagar and her illegitimate child. America is attempting to get rid of the Negro by depriving him of his rights. But God still lives. Fifteen million blacks are behind the sage brush pleading for justice. In his own time and in his own way, God will hear and deliver us. At night school, the message was chosen from St. Matt. 11 chap. 12. Theme: "Christ's method in dealing with mental conditions." The informal social given to the new members was a decided success. A splendid program was rendered and a delightful evening was spent. Mrs. Emma Whitman has given herself an efficient chairman of the Friendship Club. Bishop Denney of the Episcopal Church will be the guest of St. James and preach at the evening service next Sunday. He is a man of power and brings a wonderful message. Home Miss. Pastor Peck will preach at eleven.

St. James Church

Good services were enjoyed all day at the above named church. Scripture Lesson was read by the pastor, from Psalm 10:3. Sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday school 1:30 p. m. B. B. T. T. 6:30 p. m. The Bible class meets every Tuesday night. A big rally will take place on the fifth Sunday. As we are contemplating having a home for our church, we want on that day, by the help of our sister churches, and friends to raise $100. We will enter our new home on the 11th of September. We shall give to the poor leaders in the Lord. Come to the big church building 17th and Morgan Sts. Rev. A. Dixon, pastor.

St. James Church

The spirit of unity marks the success of each auxiliary in its campaign. We are sure of seeing the top July 27 at the basket dinner and rally. Every church is requested to send a representative. Twelve minutes' officiated at the young men's service Sunday. Rev. Reynolds will preach for District No. 2 at 8 p. m. Sunday. At 8 p. m. Rev. P. H. Ford will preach. The pastor's report was observed. Pastor Harold officiating. Thanks to Bro. Hall and wife for the success of the lawn cemetery. Come to the friendly church. Rev. A. P. Harold, pastor. E. Gordon, secretary.

St. James Church

Rev. D. W. Morris, Pastor. "The light is on Christian soldiers, if you are a friend prove it. If you are a well whiter, be great with us in our struggle to reach the top. Sunday June 22nd should be a turning point in our lives to do a better and nobler work for God in a larger field of labor. Will you help us to realize our dreams, our hopes?" Your contributions, if small, will help. Please lead us your aid. Greater blessings are in store for you and us. Last Sunday's services were good, though apparently attended by the faithful in their ultimate conditions, do not despair in their worship to God. Pastor's text at 11:00, "Peter and go forward" (Mark 16:7-9). The hymn "I'll sing and the praise for my savior" led them. At 8:30 a. m. the Sabbath school observed Children's day with song and voice rendered heartily to the orchestra. Father-Friend way of Lovejoy, Ill., entertained all hands at 3 p. m. "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness; even so must the son of man be lifted up. And whosoever are the children of his simple but powerful sermon as he leaves the West of life's day. The Tennessee Eagles wishes us pay tribute to its well wishers and co-workers. Sunday night, please be present with us for a night of Sunday. First dinner at five o'clock.

St. James Church

Though heavy our load has been we have managed to overcome, being quite a few number, we have accomplished our goal. We are now in the hands of the B. B. company. He has left Rev. Thomas in for our pastor and secretary carry on our work as usual. Rev. Thomas preached a wonderful sermon for us on last Sunday. We are now in the hands of the B. B. company.

AMUSEMENTS AND SPORT THEATRES

BOOKER WASHINGTON
PARTONS LIKE 20TH
CENTURY PLAYERS

Brown and Herlick with the 20th Century Players opened a two week engagement at the Booker Washington Theatre Monday night in a musical comedy, "The Company of Men". The company is made up of a full bill with several of their members winning popular encores frequently. There are ten performers. The comedy revolves around the old theme of a couple of tramp impostors returning to an entertainment before the usual and expected guests arrive. Pugh and Tillman are the bogus visitors and have a royal time until Boone and Lawson the "Gold Brothers", arrive late. There is plenty of comedy for the audience.

There are a number of good topical numbers. Washington opens with a good singing repertoire. Washington has an excellent baritone voice. "Hardy" Jackson almost keeps the show with an acrobatic song and dance. Some numbers by Newsy, Pugh and Tillman and "Vince" Boyce Whisman and Edmond Hudson are all good and draw applause.

Others in the company are Miss Louise Jackson and Miss Hertha.

There is a lot of dancing of the evening variety and the production as a whole is up to the average comedy drama of the week.

The 20th Century Players will present a new musical comedy, "The Curse of the Book of the Dead" at the Booker Washington Theatre next week. The plot is really of the melodrama order, but has enough comedy and music to temper its seriousness.

O. W. GRIFFITH'S PRODUCTION

The serial is said to be one of the best of the kind ever made, and has already been produced.

"The Carter Case," a crime comedy serial, featuring Herbert Ross, begins this Sunday, June 22, at the G. W. Monday, July 7.
